

Job Description

Vice President, Investments

S2G Ventures (Seed to Growth) is looking for a Vice President to play a key role in our venture capital fund. As an important member of the investment team, the Vice President will spend their time on new investment opportunities, portfolio company management and internal firm operations. The firm's industry presence and relationships allow it to see a constant flow of potential investments in the food and agriculture industry. As a Vice President, you will evaluate new investments, manage the due diligence process and be actively involved in a diverse set of companies across the food system.

The Vice President will be responsible for supporting the due diligence and research efforts of the investment team and will work with portfolio company executives (CEOs, COOs, etc.) to employ S2G's investment and operating model to drive investor returns.

Background on S2G Ventures:

S2G Ventures is a multi-stage venture fund investing in food and agriculture in the U.S. The fund's mission is to catalyze innovation to meet consumer demands for healthy and sustainable food. S2G will identify sectors across the food system that are ripe for change, and form a multi-stage portfolio including seed, venture and growth stage investments. Core areas of interest for S2G are agriculture, ingredients, infrastructure and logistics, IT and hardware, food safety and technology, retail and restaurants, and consumer brands. Key responsibilities Include:

- Working as part of the investment team to evaluate and execute investments, including managing the diligence process, financial, technology, and valuation analyses, memo preparation, investment closings and documents, and post investment management
- Diving into new markets, developing theses around industry trends and market opportunities, and constructing competitive analyses
- Building and maintaining internal systems, models, and portfolio performance tracking worksheets
- Sourcing investments by identifying and evaluating potential investment opportunities and constructing frameworks to surface new opportunities
- Organizing internal and external reporting with a focus on quarterly LP reports and CEO summits
- Assisting with the coordination and management of internal and external service providers
- Training and managing the Associate investment deal team

Qualifications

- Strong investment background having completed numerous transactions while at a venture or private equity firm
- Strong understanding and interest in entrepreneurship and emerging companies, and experience with multiple business models, financial modeling, due diligence processes, technology trends and a genuine interest in food and agriculture
- High intellectual curiosity, entrepreneurial, analytical, creative thinker and problem-solver, fast learner, with demonstrated initiative
- Good networker, with an ability to grow our network and process for identifying investment opportunities
- Strong writer and communicator, excellent listener, with superior sales skills and comfort regularly interacting with strangers
- High level of maturity and ability to work in a team setting or independently
- Good fit with team and culture and an interest in improving the food system for healthy living
- MBA or Advanced Degree strongly preferred

You will report to and work closely with the Managing Directors of S2G Ventures. This is a salaried position working out of our Chicago office.
